ELCA Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations Report

Recently in worship we have begun using a land acknowledgment of the indigenous peoples who were originally on this land of the Treasure Valley. In that statement we pledge "to honor the tribes who have and continue to care for our land...and to commit to act...and engage in repair." To that end there are several opportunities in July to educate ourselves by hearing about the work of the ELCA Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations team through free online presentations. These are offered on Zoom July 2nd, July 11th, and July 25th. Click the button below to get more details about the presentations and to get the Zoom link. For more information contact a member of KOG's Social Justice Committee: Gabrielle Applequist, Gretchen Bingea, Kurt Borm, Ken Groves, Nick Tinker

LIVING INTO A NEW STORY

Saturday, August 10th, 4-5:30pm at King of Glory in the Forum

Join the Christian Life Study Group for time with author Ron Rude. Discussion topics will flow from his recent book "Amending the Christian Story: The Natural Sciences as a Window into Grounded Faith and Sustainable Living" (Wipf and Stock Publishers, 2021).

Click here for the Book Review

At this August 10th Forum, the group will delve into new ways of looking at Christian theology and Christian living, exploring questions such as:

- Why are Judaism and Christianity such recent, infant religions? What is God up to?
- What might a non-anthropocentric version of Christian faith look like?
- How can the Natural Sciences help Christians better understand God's story of life and even God's story of Jesus?
- What do we do with troubling (especially violent) biblical stories?

After 17 years as Lutheran campus pastor (ELCA) at the University of Arizona-Tucson, Ron recently retired to writing, teaching, and service. ronrude2@gmail.com.

In addition, Ron will be sharing fresh preparations for an upcoming educational Retreat he is co-leading at Spirit in the Desert Retreat Center in Carefree, Arizona (January 23-26, 2025).

Church News

From the Library:

Hey kids of all ages, come check out the new additions to your King of Glory Library. Fiction and non-fiction editions have been newly added to the shelves for your enjoyment. We are featuring a set of Junior level books entitled Magic Magnifying Glass, written by local author Wendy Ann Mattox. She sets the background of these books at her Donnelly cabin named Bearfoot Getaway. This series of 8 different adventures stars the main character, 8 year old Finley James Carter who loves to solve mysteries with his magic magnifying glass and the help of his friend Elliot the Mouse. However, that isn't all. The magnifying glass really is magic and very interesting, exciting and sometimes dangerous adventures begin to happen once the magnifying glass is put to use. Come in and check the series out and learn how Fin learns about the power of God's love in his life.

From the LWR Quilters: We have been blessed by our congregation in all the support that you have given the quilters; from donations of fabric, sheets and money, it has been possible to keep this mission going. We always welcome new people to the group. You do not have to know how to sew a stitch but if you can tie a knot, please join us! You do not have to be a quilter to belong to this group. We are always in need of new people to help us out. We are always in need of colored cotton flat sheets, size twin or larger for our backs for the quilts. We are always there in the east classrooms on Thursday mornings from 9 am-11 am. Come check us out! Questions: ask Marilyn Falk or Nicki Tompkins.
